HOLLAND STRENGTHENING ARMY-QUEEN WARNS OF DANGER OF WAR BLAZE

The Hague, Sept. 21.-Queen Dutch parliament today says: "It is necessary for the army and navy of Holland to be ready to protect the national interest. Fresh taxes were introduced in order to strengthen the financial position of the government,

Though happily Holland has not been thrown into the war it is necessary for our army and navy to be in readiness to protect national interests," said the Queen. "The new navy bill is being introduced in order to strengthen the defenses of the Dutch East Indies.

"I hope that our subjects will bear uncomplainingly the hardship caused by the terrible war conflagration in Europe."
